

David Edwards

A physical therapist by background, David Edwards, is a self taught painter that receives his inspiration from New Orleans and animals. He paints in multiple layers using both brushes, knives and pencils to achieve the desired texture and color balance. His technique allows the paintings to appear differently depending on the level of light in the room.

All sales are donated 100% to animal rescue causes locally and throughout the United States. His work has been sold to buyers in England, Australia, China, Malaysia, Germany, and Italy. The largest number of pieces have been purchased by residents of New Orleans and surrounding Louisiana cities. He creates commissioned portraits either realistically or interpretatively, maintaining the features, but reimagining the colors. The owner's story of the animal is incorporated into the theme and feel of the piece.
